

Removing a Serious Obstruction Gently.

Dynamite and giant powder might answer admirably to remove obstructions from the Gallbladder in East River, New York, but explosive measures in medication are ever attended with disastrous consequences. For instance, the bowels cannot be violently dosed with safety, nor is there the slightest necessity for so doing. On the contrary, it is most unwise. None but the profound adherents of antiquated theories in medicine advise or sanction such a course. To weaken the intestines—the effect of drastic purgatives—is to compromise the health of the entire system. With Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, on the other hand, the bowels are relaxed, not by a convulsion of nature approximating to an eruption of St. Peter's, but gradually, beneficially, without wrenching or heaving. The liver and stomach, as well as the bowels, are toned and benefited by it.

Bringing Gladness

To millions, pleasing their palates, and cleansing their systems, arousing their livers, kidneys, stomachs and bowels to a healthy activity. Such is the mission of the famous California liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs. Fifty-cent and $1 bottles for sale by Wm. Pinniger, Reno, Nevada.

When baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a child she cried for Castoria. When she became a woman, she clung to Castoria. When she had children, she gave them Castoria.

Syrup of Figs.

Manufactured only by the California Fig Syrup Co., San Francisco, Cal., is nature's own true laxative. This pleasant California liquid fruit remedy may be had of Wm. Pinniger, Reno, Nevada. Large bottles at 50 cents or $1. It is the most pleasant, prompt and effective remedy known to cleanse the system; to act on the liver, kidneys and bowels gently yet thoroughly; to dispel headaches, colds and fevers; to cure constipation, indigestion and kindred ills.

Brace Up.

You are feeling depressed, your appetite is poor, you are bothered with head ache, you are drowsy, nervous, and generally out of sorts, and want to brace up. Brace up, but not with stimulants, spring medicines, or bitters, which only make you feel worse. You want a remedy that will purify your blood, start healthy action of liver and kidneys, restore your vitality, give renewed health and strength. Such a medicine you will find in Electric Bitter and only 50 cents a bottle at S. J. Hodgkinson & Co's Drug Store.

Old And reliable Medicines are the best to depend upon. Acker's Blood Elixir has been prescribed for years for all impurities of the blood. In every form of Scrophulous, Syphilitic or Mercurial Diseases it is invaluable. For Rheumatism, has no equal.

For habitual constipation, dyspepsia and kindred ills, is the famous California liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs. It strengthens as well as cleanses the system, it is easily taken and perfectly harmless. Large bottles for sale by Wm. Pinniger, Reno, Nevada.

The reason why Acker's Blood Elixir is warranted, is because it is the best Blood Preparation known. It will positively cure all Blood Diseases, purifies the whole system, and thoroughly builds up the constitution. Remember, we guarantee it.

W. PINNIGER, Druggist.

Unnecessary Scurvy

Probably as much misery comes from habitual constipation as from any derangement of the functions of the body, and it is difficult to cure for the reason that no one likes to take the medicine usually prescribed. Hamburg Pils were prepared to cure this difficulty, and they will be found pleasant to the taste of women and children. 25 cents. At all drug stores. J. J. Mack & Co., Proprietors, San Francisco.

SIX-PAGE EDITION.

THE air of pine forests, the dry mountain air, the mineral waters of a hundred varieties in this vicinity make Reno a hygienic point scarcely equalled, not excelled. The heat from our sands mollifies the air which sweeps down from the mountain tops, while these so-called western zephyrs purify the miasmatic vapors which otherwise might arise from decayed vegetation and preclude the existence of the seeds of malaria that are found along the rivers and in many of the valleys east and west. Professor Joseph LeConte, of the California State University, than whom there can be found no better authority on climatic effects, says our climate excels even that of California, and he doubts whether or not it has a superior anywhere in the world. Dr. Chalmers Prentice, who has traveled extensively in Europe, as well as in America, writes that he recommends, above all other places that he has ever visited, Reno to his patients as a sanitary resort. We have heard of a score, and there are probably 200 persons who have been living in Reno that have, through the influence of climate, recovered from the terrible effects of some chronic complaint acquired in other less healthful climates. The testimony on this matter in writing of distinguished medical men, as well as of hundreds that are living here who have been benefited should be published to the world. By whom should they be collected and published? By the people of Reno. For what purpose? That our valley may continue to bloom and blossom; that the wealth of the East may be poured into our lap and not carried by to a less healthful climate; that suffering fellowmen, through our instrumentalities may be told where they can find the panacea for the ills that flesh is heir to. Will Reno awake from her drowsiness, shake off her cloak of lethargy, and proclaim to millions, who would read it with interest, the beauties of her surrounding scenery, the richness of her soils and her health-giving water and climate?

GENERAL Superintendent Fillmore, of the S. P. Company, estimates that 200 people a day from the East drop into California to look at the country. General Agent Bissell, of the Santa Fe, says his line is crowded to its fullest capacity. Already some of the Raymond excursionists have commenced to move westward. Enrolled on the latter are nearly 100,000 people. The GAZETTE management through the ten days of Fair print thousands of copies of our boom edition to be distributed gratis to our Fair visitors in town, on the railroad cars at Winnemucca, also at Virginia City, Dayton, Susanville, Truckee, Sacramento, San Francisco, and a score of other places. This we do at our own expense, because we believe it will do good. If the business men of Reno will pay but the actual cost of printing these extra boom editions the management will continue this good work for months to come. If this be done thousands of tourists may be induced to stop over at Reno, and tens of thousands of dollars of increase in real estate values will be the result to Reno and vicinity within the next few months.

THE RENO GAZETTE and STOCKMAN through these columns extends greetings to the cattle-men, sheep-men, horse-men and other stock-men of Nevada now in attendance on the State Fair, and cordially invites the same to pay this office a visit while in town. Improvements recently have been made in the general appearance and reading matter of this paper and other important improvements are in contemplation. It is the desire of the management to serve the best interests of stock-raising in Nevada, and the closer the relationship between the stock-men and their medium of stock news the better for the former and the management of the latter.

It is the impression around town that the Man of God of some thousands of years ago had in view through his prophetic vision the Nevada State Fair races when he wrote "The race is not to the swift."

CALIFORNIA claims thirty-five of the two thousand Government positions soon to be given to deserving applicants under the civil service rules. How many of these positions is Nevada entitled to?

NEWS OF THE DAY.

The R. R. Commission Borrow from the R. R. Company.
New York, Sept. 24.—In the Tribune this morning was a communication to the effect that after the investigation of the Central Pacific railroad company at San Francisco the United States Pacific Railroad Commission borrowed money of the investigated company to pay its hotel bill and get out of town. The writer of the communication thought the story should be denied. "It can't be denied," said Commissioner Litter at this morning's session, "because it is true. We did borrow $4,000 from the Central Pacific for that purpose. We thought that nobody was more beholden to the Government than this road. Within an hour after we had borrowed the money we received notice from the Secretary of the Treasury that money had been placed to our credit, and we repaid the loan the next morning."

HON. FRANK M. PIXLEY

On Presidential Possibilities—The American Party.
Hon. Frank M. Pixley passed through Reno Thursday morning en route East and in answer to the Burleigh drill man of the GAZETTE unboomed himself as follows:
Rep.—Yesterday I saw Hon. John F. Swift passing through, and he said he was confident of a Republican victory in the next Presidential election. What is your opinion?

Mr. Pixley—Well, I will not support Blaine. I will use my pen and whatever little ability or influence I have to defeat him. He must not get the nomination. As to Mr. Allison, there is no question as to his fitness and ability, but I am sure you know that it is widely rumored he is a free thinker?

Rep.—Well, that would not influence you against his candidacy?
Mr. Pixley—Not at all. But you see, although I may attack certain features of the Catholic Church, particularly wherein its influence enters the political arena, I still have an abiding faith in the power and strength of our public schools and the religious world.

Rep.—Who, then, do you think the strongest man in the Republican party?
Mr. Pixley—John Sherman, of course. He is able, discreet, honest and withal a statesman of the first order. I have no doubt whatever of his success in the convention and at the polls.

Rep.—Do you think he could beat Cleveland?
Mr. Pixley—Well, I'll tell you just what I think. When we fought so hard to elect Blaine one of the principal arguments advanced was that we could not trust the Democratic party with the affairs of the national Government after an absence from power of twenty-four years. But we have had our eyes opened. Mr. Cleveland's administration has been prosperous. The country is at peace with the world, our population is increasing rapidly, industry has received a new impetus, the small-fry politicians have been relegated to the slums of our large cities and the Government is run on business principles.

Rep.—What do you think of the supposed insult to the Grand Army?
Mr. Pixley—It is too absurd to take into consideration at all. It will not figure in the next campaign.

Rep.—What about the American party?
Mr. Pixley—Its main principles will be engrafted in the national platforms of the two great parties—that is its mission and it will win. Then, shaking the reporter's hand quite heartily, he boarded the train.

The Water Question.

William Dunphy, the great cattle king, passed through here, says the Silver State, going west. He says he has not deviated the waters of the Humboldt from their natural channel, and that the only water that he uses from the river is on the Rose place, which he has purchased. He has bought immense tracts of land along the river in Lander, Eureka and Elko counties, and claims that he has a right to use part of the river in irrigating them, if he feels so disposed. So far he has done nothing toward damming the river, but on the contrary, last winter, when the river had broken into a slough and was changing its channel, he went to considerable expense to turn the water back into its old channel.

Delivery Hour Changed.

Hereafter the delivery window of the postoffice will not be opened in the mornings until the arrival and distribution of the California mail. This course has been rendered necessary by the rapidly increasing business of the office and the irregular arrival of the east-bound train, thus entailing needless labor on the part of the clerks, in attending to the wants of letter seekers, who make frequent demands on their time and patience until its arrival.

Geburn & Shoemaker.

The above firm keeps the best equipped drug store in Reno. Prescriptions are carefully compounded by competent clerks. In addition to drugs and medicines, the stock of ladies' toilet articles is elegant, and the prices are moderate.

The business men of Carson have all (but one) agreed to close their places of business next Tuesday and attend the Fair in a body.

THE BOOM

Seems to have come at last, and from all indications to remain permanently. Never before in the history of the State has the desire been so great to obtain real-estate among us; the daily transactions are enormous, and values are constantly going higher. Small fortunes are being made right and left by those with Cash to invest. The present boom in real-estate is only a forerunner of the boom about to take place in

Attention, Stockmen!

DR. FISHERMAN'S CARBOLIZED ALKALINE LOTION IS TO-DAY AHEAD of all other preparations for the merciful care of STUCK. As an external remedy it will be found unequalled for a application to Sprains, Sores, (new or old), Alkali Sores, Bruises, Galls, Swellings, Scratches, Trench, Rheumatism, Mange, Itch and Skin Diseases. It will strengthen and make straight weak knees and ankles. It is invaluable as an internal remedy for coughs, colds, congestion or fever, and we sincerely believe it is just the right remedy to use during the BRANDING SEASON, as it will at once take out the fire and seal the wound over. We believe it will prevent the marks and brands from becoming fly-blown. This lotion does not contain tar-pentine; consequently does not torture the beast for hours. Price, ONE DOLLAR per full quart bottle, which makes half a gallon of lotion. Please give it a trial.

Valuable Testimonials.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 20th, 1887.

The Place for Homes.

Is one of the garden spots of the Silver State, if not of the entire Pacific Coast. Lying in the southwest part of Washoe county, on the line of the C. P. R. R., the beautiful Truckee Meadows are somewhat in the form of an equilateral triangle, with the base on the line of the Truckee river and the railroad; while the height of the triangle is measured from Reno along that magnificent drive known as the Virginia road, and is, when neatly calculated, eleven and one-fourth miles, the sides of the triangle being thirteen miles in extent. The vertex of this triangular basin is at the celebrated Steamboat Springs; the right basal angle marks the location of the famous Laughton Mineral Springs, and the left basal angle is near the mouth of the canyon through which daily rushes east and west

THE SHORTING OVERLAND IRON HORSE.

This tri-lateral space, if we conceive it to be a regular polygon, contains 73½ square miles, or forty-six thousand eight hundred acres, or two thousand three hundred and forty twenty-acre lots, capable of sustaining as many families, and a population of fifteen thousand souls, reckoning about six persons to the family, including employees. This estimate of the agricultural area is exclusive of the many thousands of acres of valuable arable lands on the low slopes easily susceptible of irrigation, and in the alcoves of the mountains and arms of the Meadows, as Pleasant Valley and Spanish Spring Valley and others, which would considerably increase the capacity of the basin for an industrious population. This simple calculation is far from being exaggerated or overdrawn. Statistics are abundant to prove that, with such a soil and climate as those possessed by

THE MATCHLESS TRUCKEE MEADOWS.

An industrious healthy family can support itself well on ten acres of such land, and have considerable produce for the market. But on twenty acres of no better soil, in California, the colonists of Fresno and other counties prosper and grow rich. From these facts, to be liberal, it appears that the Meadows have received but a third of their allotted population, and are developed only in the same ratio. What an impetus could be given to Reno and to the State, and what wealth it would add to her material industries. And yet, some of the old chronic and moss-backs (the writer met a few of them in the beautiful Meadows, cleaving like caribou to their rocks, and trying to crowd off their fellows) while making loud pretense of sympathy for the poor immigrant, are anti-immigrant, anti-boom, anti-progress. They inveigh against every scheme devised for the development of the resources of the country, and for the advancement of its material wealth, if, in their short-sightedness, they cannot see how it is immediately to turn the monetary tide in their individual favor. Such persons are a hindrance to the prosperity of any locality which they may happen to afflict, and dead weights on its progress; and the sooner the country ignores them and leaves them to rust out, the better it will be for all.

EMIGRATION

Will come to the golden and silver shore, whether we welcome it or not. Our matchless climate and productive soil, with the opportunities here existing for even small means, judiciously invested and managed, to bring comfort and competence, will attract capital and industry; and the difference in the prosperity of different localities will lie in the difference of encouragement given to the brawn and the brain, the capital and the skill, seeking among us a field for their display. Hence the importance of showing, through the press, the capabilities of a State, or any part of it, as they actually exist, that those seeking good homes and good health, and a chance to provide, in the race of life, for all of its necessities and for a portion of its

LOCATION.
This institution, founded in 1886, is situated near the village of San Mateo, which is noted for its beauty and seclusion; also for the equability and healthfulness of its climate. It is within twenty miles of San Francisco by rail, and easily accessible by carriage, and therefore particularly suited to parents in the city who wish their sons within reach in case of emergency. Trains of the Southern Pacific Company frequently, allowing visitors to go and return several times daily.

DISCIPLINE.
The Principal exercises a fatherly care and discipline over the pupils, seeking to influence and kindly lead rather than drive. The military discipline is used in a modified form, sufficient to secure regular exercise and erect carriage by drill, and habits of promptness and obedience, with orderly movements in the school-room. Experience has proved that the military drill, thus modified, is beneficial and not objectionable. Particular attention is given to the morals and manners of the pupils by both principal and teachers, it being considered an indispensable part of their training to make them gentlemen as well as scholars. This is the atmosphere of the school.

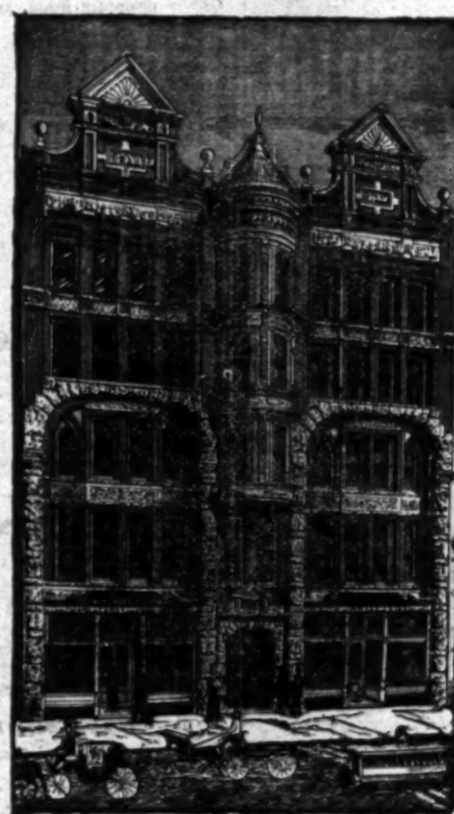

SESSIONS.
The school year is divided into two sessions of twenty weeks each. The Easter session begins about January 5th; the Trinity session about July 20th, with a summer vacation of eight weeks, and a winter vacation of four weeks. Pupils will be received at any time.

Nevada State University Furnished Throughout With This Desk.

CONTRACT FOR SUPPLYING SAN FRANCISCO SCHOOLS LATELY AWARDED TO THE "AUTOMATIC"

Recommended by Hon. W. C. Dovey, Superintendent of Public Instruction of Nevada.

THE "AUTOMATIC" AS COMPARED WITH OTHER SEATS.

The illustrations show the great superiority of the Rear-folding Seat over all others in Durability, Economy of Space, and Tendency to Induce a Healthful Position. The cuts were made from photographs of the desks themselves, and are, therefore, perfectly accurate.

From photograph of the Automatic Rear-folding Seats; in use over five years.

The Automatic Seat, being supported in front, can NEVER SAG, and as the seats fold as the pupils rise, and remain folded and out of the way until they take their seats again, the desks are set much nearer together. The above are set the right distance apart, securing an EASY, GRACEFUL, AND HEALTHFUL POSITION of the pupil.

From photograph of the best (?) Hinge-Seal Desks; in use less than five years.

One great objection to hinged seats is that they wear so as to become noisy in folding, and sag, as the above, becoming uncomfortable, or totally unfit for use. The above desks are set the "regulation" distance apart, which distance, together with the sag of the seat, induces the AWKWARD AND UNHEALTHFUL POSITION of the pupil.

Endorsed by President Brown, of the State University of Nevada.

THE J. DEWING COMPANY, Sole Agents, 420 and 422 Bush Street, San Francisco.

Anyone buying desks without considering the Automatic, will surely regret it. Send for Circulars and Price Lists, saving money.

comforts, may be intelligently guided in the search for the coveted boon. Let those of competence and zeal for the good work be sent, at any cost, through the length and breadth of the land, to portray, from actual observation, what each locality is and is doing and can do, that absolutely reliable statistics may be obtained; and in this way, fictitious booms may be avoided, and a healthy growth and prosperity will be the order of the day. Such is the spirit that has dictated the gathering of these statistical notes. What shall be said of the people and their interests in this vicinity, through the GAZETTE, will be less than the whole truth, and will aim at the development of the varied wealth, and the promotion of the prosperity of this region of our common country.

THE RANGE OF PRODUCTS

Are far beyond our expectation. All the cereals are produced, to a greater or less extent, in the valley, and in some places the yield is most prolific, being for wheat eighteen to twenty sacks; and even as high as twenty-three sacks of one hundred and thirty pounds each, have been produced to the acre, while the average for all grades of the soil, from year to year, is twelve to fifteen sacks of one hundred and thirty pounds, to the acre. This approximate result, gathered with much care from the ranchers and buyers, is a fine showing, and compares more than favorably with the present average yield in California, which, for the entire State, is probably not over ten to twelve and a half sacks of one hundred and forty pounds to the acre. Of course, the average for the entire State of Nevada would not be so large. But it is a fact, that the grain is better and heavier in the mountain cereal-producing soils, than that grown in hotter climates. The favorable difference in this locality, is due to the great fertility and adaptability of soil, with the serenity of the climate that insures the gradual growth and fullest invigoration of the stalk, and the gradual maturity and plumpness of the grain. There is no melting heat or scorching sun to sap the plant suddenly, and shrivel the kernel. And what is true of the cereals, in the sense of gradual growth and maturity, is true, also, of the grapes, and of all of the staple vegetables. Under a soil and climate exactly adapted, and with a sufficiency of water, the growth and maturity, through a somewhat prolonged season, are subject to just the conditions necessary to produce vegetation of the most nutritious fibre, and grains and tubers of the largest size, and the richest in the saccharine and starchy, and other nutrient principles. Hence, the pulp and granulation of fruits and tubers are finer, and the flavor better, in such a sheltered upland basin, than will be found in the more succulent, coarse-fibered, quick-growing products of more sultry climates.

THE RESULTS.

As a consequence, animals do better here, fatten quicker, and the flesh on the edible sort is more savory, than that fattened on the vegetation of the large coast valleys, and is preferred in the San Francisco markets.

THE NATIVE GRASSES

Are the famous bunch, wild clover, red-top, blue-joint, etc. The cultivated grasses are principally timothy, alfalfa, and blue-grass, the last being used mainly for sward, though it makes excellent grazing feed.

ALFALFA.

No soil on the Pacific Coast has been found so well adapted to this indispensable plant, as that of the Truckee Meadows. The plant grows taller here, and stands thicker on the ground with a stalk less weedy and stony, than in most other places on the Pacific Slope. The number of crops cut is fewer than in sultry climates, but the number of tons per acre is more, ranging from about two to six tons, the average being two and one-half tons at the first cutting, and there being three cuttings during the season. But, put the number of tons from each acre, in one season, at four to five tons. Allow the land to be worth a hundred dollars an acre, the market value of the hay $75, and the expense of taking it off the land one-half the proceeds. And the farmer has a more handsome income, and a safer investment, than he can realize, at present rates, by loaning money. This unexaggerated estimate, gathered from some of the most reliable farmers of the valley, speaks volumes for the alfalfa industry of this region. The natural hay is in as good demand as alfalfa and timothy, and brings, usually, the same price. It is a matter of regret to the writer, and doubtless will be to others interested, that no reliable statistics respecting the aggregate production of hay and grain in this valley, can be obtained. We have sought it with care, of the farmers and millers and the stockmen, but cannot determine anything reliable, as to grain. As to hay, and some other products, a tabulated statement will be made at the end of these papers. At present the hay, vegetable and fruit production, and the stock industry, are on the increase; and grain production on the decrease, this industry having reached its climax about three years ago, since which time it has been demonstrated to be a less profitable crop than the others above-mentioned. This is said to be due, in a measure, to adverse competition and adverse freights. A large portion of the wheat crop goes to Virginia and elsewhere in the mountains as poultry feed.

THE POTATO INDUSTRY

Is one of the most lucrative in the country. The yield in some parts of the valley is eleven to twelve tons, and even as high as twenty tons, to the acre. Such is the case on the ranches of Orrin C. Row and the Hon. Geo. Alt, in the vicinity of Glendale. These tubers are of the finest quality, and
